

1949-1990

Day of German Unity and how everything came about

On 1 May of the year 1989, Hungary started to dismantle its barrier fences to Austria.

At this time in East Germany had already used a strong resistance movement in the union in the summer of 1989 many East Germans Genzer the open in Hungary, fled into the free West.

The people at the Monday demonstrations led the peaceful revolution

The agreement of the Soviet Union is an essential prerequisite for reunification.

Legal preconditions for the reunification of the two German states have signed the Unification Treaty, the negotiators of the two German states on Aug 31, 1990th.

It also specifies that on October 3, 1990, the GDR joins the scope of the Federal Republic. In this context, as a common holiday of October 3, determined annually.

